IV. REGULAR AGENDA

1. Animal Husbandry Standards Presentation – Emily Tarantini

Based on direction from the City Council, Current Planning staff has prepared information for Planning Commission review and comment relating to animal husbandry and the City's animal keeping regulations contained in Title 6 of the Municipal Code. Interest in this topic initially arose in August of 2018 when enforcement action was taken by the Larimer Humane Association (on behalf of the City) relating to the keeping of pygmy goats by a Loveland family. More recent enforcement actions have involved pot-bellied pigs.

In preparation for the March 11th meeting, Planning staff has prepared a broad review of animal keeping regulations and standards for communities on the North Front Range--which might be described as a "best practices" survey. Given recent community issues, more detailed information has been assembled on pot-bellied pigs and pygmy goats. A third animal type of interest is roosters, which many communities prohibit due to their propensity for early morning crowing.

The role of the Planning Commission on March 11th is to review the information provided staff and to take comments from the public on this topic. The Larimer Humane Society, which contracts with the City to provide animal services, including enforcement services, will also have staff present to answer questions at the meeting. By the end of the meeting, the Commission should be prepared to recommend to City Council whether the animal regulations contained in Title 6 should be amended. On April 9th, the City Council will a conduct study session on the animal husbandry topic and all information on the Planning Commission record will be forwarded to the City Council in advance of the study session.

2. Planning Commission 2018 Accomplishments and 2019 Goals – Robert Paulsen

Early in each year, the Planning Commission reviews it's accomplishments from the previous year and establishes goals for the new year. This effort provides a record of past activities and helps the Commission and staff plan for the year ahead. Current Planning staff has provided a preliminary listing of 2018 Accomplishments and 2019 Goals to facilitate Commission discussion. The establishment of the accomplishments and goals is an administrative action by the Commission
