Guidelines for Qualifying Homebuyers

The City of Loveland, under the City’s Affordable Housing Policies, offers incentives to developers and builders of affordable housing.

The following conditions must be met in order for a household to qualify under the City’s guidelines:

1. The following information must be submitted to:

   City of Loveland, Community Partnership Office, 500 East Third Street Suite 210, Loveland, CO 80537; or email to brandy.benson@cityofloveland.org. Questions or concerns call: 970-962-2705

   • A completed Qualified Affordable Housing Transaction Form
   • Copies of the Buyers’ most recently filed federal tax returns and w-2 forms for all persons in the household age 18 or older (full time students excluded)
   • Copies of the Buyers’ two most recent pay-stubs for all persons in the household with an income (includes statement of benefits if receiving Social Security/Disability etc.)
   • Copy of the fully completed loan application from the lender the buyer has chosen to finance the purchase of the house.
   • Copy of the loan qualification letter from lender.

2. A qualified buyer will meet all of the following requirements:

   • The total gross household income, as adjusted for household size, will meet the most currently required income guidelines.

   • Buyer will disclose 100% of total household income for persons aged 18 years and older, and who are not full-time students, including, but not limited to the following:

     ▪ Earned income from wages, salaries, tips, and self-employment;
     ▪ Court-ordered Child Support
     ▪ Social Security Income
     ▪ Retirement Income
     ▪ Any and all public cash benefits
     ▪ Any other source of income that sustains the household
