

CITY OF LOVELAND ARTIST CALL FOR ENTRY The Art Advocacy Project 2D - 2016

TAAP 2-D PROJECT MISSION

The City of Loveland Visual Arts Commission (VAC) desires Northern Colorado artists to showcase their work along the Galleria walls for the Loveland Public Library in 2016. This project will serve to promote two-dimensional artists through public display of their artworks in City of Loveland facilities, and allow a means for artwork sales.

Project Timeline

Call for Entry distributed November 30, 2015 – January 8, 2016

Deadline for submitting: Friday, January 8, 2016 at 5:00 p.m.

Artwork on display: February 2016– February 2017

Jury Panel to Review the Artwork: mid-January

Artists enter into City Contract by late January

Artists Deliver Artwork: Tuesday February 9, 2016

Artwork Installed: Mid-February, 2016 (TBD)

HOW TO APPLY:

Application Requirements

Open to all Northern Colorado artists of two-dimensional media.

Artists will be compensated with an honorarium of $250.00

All artists must submit a complete application by the specified deadline.

- * Submitted artwork must be of professional quality and must be an original design, created by the artist submitting.
- * Artwork must be considered Museum ready to hang: framed (when appropriate), protective glass (when appropriate), professionally fabricated and durable for public display. If selected, D-ring attachments are needed on back.
- * Artwork must remain on display for the duration of the program, unless sold within the first three months.
- * Art in Public Places Program retains 20% commission for all art sales resulting from this display.
- * Applications will be reviewed by a jury panel consisting of VAC representatives and the general public.
  - All art sales are handled by Kimber Kreutzer, Public Art/Business Services Coordinator.
  - Each artist is allowed a maximum of 3 entries.
